Additional Resources

This Additional Resources section includes information on a number of topics that may be important for your bid e.g. climate change, data protection, prompt payment, innovation.

On the left hand side of this page you can see the Additional Resources menu headings. You can then click on any of these headings to view the specific topic information.

These pages provide information you may find helpful in understanding elements that may be requested in an ITT. In many cases these pages link to additional information and support.
